interaction of accused with the nominated advocate on telephone for sufficient time. The provision of interaction with every accused has been made keeping in view that every person in custody is entitled to free legal aid irrespective of his financial status.

3. If the nominated advocate is of the opinion that his visit to the police station is required to provide further advice or assistance to the accused or his family members, then he shall visit the police station. In case of visit by the nominated advocate, the police authorities shall provide appropriate sitting space to him.
4. The officer in charge of police station shall ensure that if complainant, victim or witness of any offence needs legal aid or service then he shall facilitate such person in having communication with nominated advocate. The advocate in turn would inform him/her about availability of legal aid and other services provided by the legal services institution as well as various schemes of DSLSA beneficial to him/her.
5. It shall be ensured that if in any case, accused as well as complainant/ victim/ witness wish to have interaction with the legal aid counsel, then complainant/ victim/ witness would have interaction with link advocate of that police station rather than the nominated advocate.
6. The LAC concerned should maintain data regarding number of interactions done by them on phone or in person with the arrested persons or with the complainant/ victims or witnesses and also number of visits made by them to respective police stations. The said information be sent to this authority as well as Central office, DSLSA every week.
7. SHOs of each police station would also send a report to concerned DLSA about number of persons arrested in respective police station in a week, number of interactions done by nominated advocates with accused complainant/ victim or witness and number of visits made by nominated advocates to the police stations.
8. LAC concerned shall be paid honorarium @ Rs.6600/- per month for his services as advocate 'on call basis'. However, if he visits the police station concerned, he would be paid Rs. 1000/- per visit maximum up to Rs. 6000/- in total in a month.
9. The certificate of every visit, containing brief particulars of cases i.e. FIR No., Sections, Police Station, name of accused and purpose of visit, shall be countersigned by the Officer in charge of the police station.
10. To maintain professional propriety, it is mandated that the nominated advocate as well as link advocate attached with a police station shall not take private case related to that police station till the time he has been assigned duty under this project.
11. In case, no call is received by the deputed LAC from police station, or no service is rendered in terms of this order, no honorarium shall be payable.
