PROJECT OF ADOPTION OF JAILS AND OBSERVATION HOMES

ENSURING EXPEDITIOUS AND EFFECTIVE LEGAL SERVICES TO THE INMATES

1. AIMS & OBJECTIVES

To provide an integrated fail proof mechanism for reaching out to inmates of Jails & Observation Homes for providing, expeditious, effective and appropriate legal aid.

2. NEED FOR THE PROJECT

Tihar Jail is one of the largest Jails in India. It along with Rohini Jail houses more than 12,000 prisoners. Observation Homes in Delhi also houses sizable number of Juveniles in conflict with law. Majority of the inmates belongs to weaker sections of the society. Sizeable number of the inmates are illiterate and poor. It has been noticed that several prisoners are languishing in Jails since they are unable to fulfil surety conditions. It has been observed that in some cases appeals against convictions could not be filed due to communication gap between Legal Services Authorities and inmates. There is a need to build a framework by which prisoners who are unable to engage private lawyers can be represented in the court and their applications for bail, appeals and other grievances can be filed at the earliest. It is necessary to provide a systemic mechanism so that competent and timely legal aid is provided to inmates. There is need for awareness generation, augmentation of fleet of Para Legal Volunteers besides keeping a check on the panel lawyers, Jail visiting lawyers & Observation Home visiting lawyers to ensure that they work in an efficient, sincere and punctual manner.
3. CONSTITUTIONAL DIRECTIVE

Article 39A of the Constitution of India—Equal Justice and free legal aid:

“The State shall secure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice, on a basis of equal opportunity, and shall, in particular, provide free legal aid, by suitable legislation or schemes or in any other way, to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities.”

Delhi State Legal Services Authority feels that people who are incarcerated are disabled to access legal services to defend the charges levelled against them and seek appropriate legal orders from the Courts of law, irrespective of their social and/or financial background.
